2026 Moderator

Tom Holt

NABIP Lobbyist
The Holt Company

Tom Holt, principal of The Holt Company, is a veteran policy strategist and lobbyist based in Portland, with specialties in health care, economic development, and employer issues. He has worked on behalf of insurers, health systems, provider groups and he currently represents, among others, NABIP-Oregon. His background also includes extensive media and communications experience.

Carmen Cooper

CEO
UnitedHealthcare's
Pacific Northwest region

Carmen Cooper serves as CEO of UnitedHealthcare's Pacific Northwest region, overseeing operations across five states: Oregon, Washington, Alaska, Montana, and Hawaii. In this role, she holds P&L accountability for all commercial products in the region and provides strategic leadership to advance access, affordability, and quality of care.

A passionate advocate for improving the healthcare system, Carmen brings years of experience in leadership and community engagement. She is deeply committed to fostering authentic mentorship for emerging female leaders and driving initiatives that strengthen local communities. Outside of her professional responsibilities, Carmen volunteers with organizations such as Step by Step Foundation, Oregon Food Bank, and Mary's Place, and enjoys birdwatching and music with her three children.

Christina Jackson

Vice President
Market Product Performance
Health Net of Oregon

Christina Jackson has been with Health Net for 22 years and serves as Vice President of Market Product Performance. She is actively involved in Commercial, Medicare, and Medicaid strategies, focusing on product performance, regulatory alignment, and market growth initiatives to enhance access and member experience.

Michael Cole

President
Regence BlueCross
BlueShield of Oregon

As President, Michael Cole oversees strategy and growth for Regence BlueCross BlueShield of Oregon, which serves nearly 1 million Oregonians. In his first year, Cole managed $4.4 billion in total revenue across multiple lines of business and helped successfully negotiate and renew contracts with critical health system partners in Oregon. As a member of the Oregon community, he understands the pivotal role nonprofits play in helping Oregonians. In 2023, Cole directed $2.2 million in contributions to support Oregon-based nonprofit organizations.

Cole brings extensive leadership experience in the healthcare industry, having served as President of Aetna North Atlantic Territory & CEO of Aetna Keystone, Senior Vice President of Commercial Markets at HMS Holdings Corp., National Vice President & General Manager of Health Plans at Quest Diagnostics, and Chief Operating Officer of UHC Illinois. He also held the role of National Vice President at UHC.

Beyond his corporate leadership, Cole is deeply committed to community service. He has been a longtime board member at Erie Family Health Center, a federally qualified health center dedicated to providing essential healthcare services to underserved populations.

He also participates as a mentor to the health care startup community through a venture-backed health care incubator and has served as a diversity mentor through his career. Cole also serves on the strategic issues committee for the Commission on the Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education (CAHME).

Erik Wood

Enterprise Market President
PacificSource Health Plans

Erik Wood serves as the Enterprise Market President for PacificSource Health Plans. In this position, he provides strategic leadership for government relations, market-based strategy, crisis management, and Meaningfully Local initiatives, ultimately supporting PacificSource's growth, profitability, and reputation across the Oregon, Montana, and Idaho markets.

Before joining PacificSource, Erik spent 17 years in leadership roles within Montana's health systems, working across three different facilities. His experience on the provider side has shaped a collaborative, community-first approach to health care. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science and a master's degree in public administration.

Erik, his spouse, and two children spend their free time skiing, hiking, and backpacking across Montana.

Stacy Carmichael

Vice President of Sales &
Account Services
Moda Health

Stacy has been working for Moda Health for 30 years. She has been in management roles for over 23 years leading teams in the Membership Accounting, Business Implementation and Sales departments. She was a Senior Account Executive focused on large hospitals and National accounts for several years before becoming a Manager and later a Director in Sales and Account Services. Stacy leads the Sales and Account Services team including hospital client, commercial employers and individual lines of business and operations for Moda Health, Delta Dental of Oregon and Alaska and BenefitHelp Solutions. Moda Health operates in Oregon, Alaska, Idaho and Austin, Texas.

Stacy is a proud military mom and has served on the board of the NABIP, previously Oregon Association of Health Underwriters for over 14 years and currently serves on board positions for the Oregon Medical Education Foundation and American Cancer Society.

Jennifer Stacy

Vice President, Marketing, Sales and Business Development
Kaiser Permanente Northwest

Jennifer Stacy is Vice President, Marketing, Sales and Business Development for Kaiser Permanente Northwest. In her role, she is responsible for the sales and service of medical and dental to both individuals and employers, as well as Strategic Market Planning, which includes business development, rate setting and forecasting. She joined KP in 2013 and has held progressive roles focused on the ensuring the achievement of the highest levels of customer satisfaction and financially sustainable membership growth. Prior to KP she spent 15+ years working in the ancillary employee benefits sector.

Scott Burton

Commercial Market President
Providence Health Plan

Scott Burton serves as Market President for the Commercial lines of business at Providence Health Plan (PHP), a non-profit health plan serving 450,000 members across Oregon, Washington and California. He leads the Sales and Account Services teams, manages operations across all commercial segments, and drives the development and execution of PHP's commercial strategy.
